The Bible does not address the issue of midlife crisis directly, as the phenomenon has really only been researched since the 1970s, and the term midlife crisis is of fairly recent coinage. Something akin to midlife crisis might be described in the book of Ecclesiastes , which details the emptiness of a life lived apart from God.

What does the Bible say about a midlife crisis?

The Bible teaches everywhere that God's words are clear: "The words of the LORD are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times" (Psalms 12:6). To deny this is not to speculate but to "lie against the truth" ( James 3:14 ).
