Best Answer: The book is "Gray's Anatomy", the TV show is "Grey's Anatomy" The two have nothing in common except a medical theme. Gray's Anatomy is a scientific examination of the human anatomy, while Grey's Anatomy is a soap opera based in a hospital which uses a play on words as the title in order to make the show sound more appealing, which is akin to writing a book and calling it "The Bible" in order to boost sales.
