sit on God's Throne. But He held my hand and placed me on His Throne. This was what it was like to sit on the Throne of God. The past, present and the future disappear. It was like a position you entered into where everything in the past and everything in the future is just like the present. There is no time. You do not feel it.

The Throne Room of God (Message #13) Revelation 4: 2-11 In our last study we found John taken up into heaven to see the things which must be hereafter. Keep in mind that John represents the church being caught up to be with the Lord at the end of the church age. John's first glimpse into our future is within the very throne room of God.
